Kishika, 01/16/2004:
Amir my friend, we go way back to the days of old, where the ways of the world were not yet discovered and the youth in our heart shone bright... Well, I guess not much has changed :-)
[?] We have had many adventures you and I and it's awesome that we have stuck through it this far. It's great having you as a roommate and I look forward to all our future endeavors!
